STRIKERS MEET IN SOCIALIST SUBURB

Twenty Thousand Paterson Silk Workers Gather in Open Air.

OFFERS OF SYMPATHY.

Conditions in Hopedale, Mass.—Tentative Settlement is Believed to be in Sight.

Paterson, N. J., April 3.—More than twenty thousand silk workers poured out of the city today to go to Haledon, the little Socialist suburb where they hold open air-meetings unmolested by the police. Today's mass-meeting was called for the purpose of testing the sincerity of the offers of assistance made by local officials of the American Federation of Labor to the I. W. W. leaders in charge of the sik strike.

"If the A. F. of L., is sincere," declared Miss Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, organizer, today, "it will call a general sympathetic strike in all industries in Paterson. We are going to demand that at our meeting today and put it flatly up to the A. F. of L."

In response to messages of sympathy and offers of assistance, William D. Haywood, the labor leader, waiting in jail for hearing Saturday on the writ of habeas corpus although he expects to be cleared of the charge of "unlawul asembly" on which he was arrested Sunday, issued the following reply today:

"Do not worry about those of us who are in prison. We are well and provided for. Think rather of the thousands on the picket line every morning. You know these slaves are seldom more than three weeks ahead of starvation. Think then of the hungry."

Hopedale, Mass., April 3.—Joseph M. Coldwell ,of Worcester, three times a candidate for state treasurer, who is leading the Draper Mill strikers, as an I. W. W. organizer, stated that he hoped to reach a tentative settlement of the differences at a peace conference today with Superintendent Nutter, of the Draper Company .

Joseph J. Ettor, the I. W. W. leader, is expected to arrive today from Providence, R. I.

At an early hour over five hundred strikers gathered at Milford, for a peceable demonstration. Despite the fact that Coldwell has urged the strikers not resort to violence, more trouble is expected as the strikers are ugly as a result of their beating at the hands of the police yesterday.

When the crowd reached Hopedale they were confronted by several hundred policemen and they quietly turned around and marched back to Milford. The only act of violence was an unsuccessful attempt mae by a part of the strikers to derail a car. A squad of policemen drove them off. The strikers will appoint a committee at a mass-meeting today to present their demands to mill officials.

Gaynor Will Call Halt.

New York, April 3.—Tripping the tea-time tango or "tea trot," as the afternoon public dancing in the Broadway restaurants is called, has come under the forwn of Mayor Gaynor, and it was reported today that he intended to take some step to call a halt on this phase of the dancing craze. It is the Turkey-trotting" mania that the Mayor aimed at especially in his closing order and now that he has been informed all about the "tea-trottin" something new in the way of police regulations is expected.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Five men were drowned Tuesday night, when the tugboat Thomas F. O'Brien, towing three scows loaded with brick and driving against the wind, became entangled with the scows and sank in East river, New York. The crew of another tug, passing, heard the cries of the drowning sailors and rushed to their aid, but were able to rescue only the captain and two of the crew of the O'Brien The tug sank so quickly that by the time the rescuing tug arrived nothing of her could be seen but the top of her mast.

Rodman Law plans to be the first man to fly across the Atlantic Ocean. He will leave the east coast of Newfoundland in a Burgess-Wright hydroplane, together with Harry Bingham Brown, in July next in a flight to win the $50,000 prize offered by the London Daily Mail for the first heavier-than-air machine to fly across the Atlantic. According to the plans he has already made, the flight will be made in 36 hours, including one stop in midocean.

Brig-Gen. Thomas M. Jones, a veteran of the Confederate army, died on Monday at his home at Prescott, Ariz. He was born in Virginia in 1832. He was at one time superintendent of public schools at Warrenton, Va. President Cleveland in 1885, appointed him United States Indian agent for the Shoshones and Northern Arapahoes.

DEATH OF WAYNE BYERS.

Mr. Wayne Byers, a well known resident of the First Ward, died at his home on Fairfax street, near Gibbon this morning. The deceased had been in failing health for a long time. He leaves a widow,daughter of Mrs. Emeline and the late Thomas Chauncey.

Mr. Byers was a native of Shenandoah county, but had resided in Alexandria most of his life time. While a youth he was news agent on the Manassas branch of the Southern Railway, and later was in the employ of the company. He subsequently worked at printing in Alexandria. He later became a linotype operator on a Washington paper, a position he held until failing health forced him to relinquish it. For a number of years he had conducted a store on South Fairfax street. He was registrar of the First Ward.

During the past few years he had been a victim to locomotor ataxir, and at the time of his death had become virtually helpless. He had a large circle of friends and acquaintances who will regret to hear of his death.

The deceased was fifty-six years old.

VAUDEVILLE LAST NIGHT.

As had been anticipated the vaudeville entertainment last night in Lyceum Hall for benefit of the baseball club of St. Mary's Sunday school was a success in every particular. The band from the fort gave a free concert in front of the Lyceum at 7:30. The program as published in yesterday's Gazette was well rendered.

A. H. S. Vs. GONZAGA.

Tomorrow at 3:30 the Alexandria High School base ball team will play the Gonzaga College team of Washington at the local park. The game promises to be a very good contest,as the local boys are rounding into form and intend to put up a good game of ball. The admission fee will be 15 cents. Ladies free.

CONDITIONS IN CAIRO CRITICAL

Men Working Frantically Day and Night to Strengthen Levees.

THRILLING STORIES.

Marooned on Crumbling Strips of Embankment With Water Stretching For Many Miles.

Cairo, Il., April 3.—With the river guage stationery at 54.5 since ten o'clock last night, six inches higher than the water has been in the history of this city, the conditions here at 10 a. m., today were critical.

The fate of the city is believed to be in the hands of the men who have been working night and day to strengthen the levees and upon whether the Hickman levee, built by the government and inaccessible to workers, can hold.

Probably the most thrilling of these rescues was that of forty-eight members of Company G, of the National Guard of Missouri, who were taken from a strip of levee 200 yards wide and 400 yards long near Birds Point, Mo., by a detachment of the Chicago Naval Reserves after their officers had rowed to Cairo in a skiff which threatened to overturn any moment.

The men had been ordered to Birds Point for flood duty by Gov. Major, and the breaking of levees all about them left them marooned on the crumbling strip of embankment with water stretching about them for many miles in all directions. The heaviest boats were carried away in a sudden sweep of water and only the skiff which could carry but two men remained.

Reports reaching here from Brookport, Ky., near Paducah, are that the town is under water. An appeal made for aid made to Springfield caused the steamer "Rapid" loaded with supplies and boats to be dispatched there for rescue work.

From Brookport the boat will go to Shawneestown. The situation at Shawneestown is said to be very serious. A violent wind storm, added to the effect of the high water, has destroyed every house in the city, it is reported, except a few stone and brick buildings,and in these the 300 men who remained in the town are said to be marooned.

Columbus, O., April 3.—The work of searching for bodies of victims of the flood was renewed with vigor today. The total number of bodies recovered up to date is 81. Another squad of convicts and volunteer workers attacked the tons of debris south of the city where several more bodies were expected to be uncovered. The local relief committee again issued urgent appeals for money and supplies today. Estimates by city authorities showed that 3,280 homes in the city had been completely destroyed or badly damaged by the flood. It was also estimated that private loss amounts to over $1,000,000, public loss was placed at $1,025,000.

Shawneetown, Ill., April 3.—Inhabitants of Shawneetown, encamped on the hills back of the town where they fled for their lives, sat helpless today and saw the waters of the Ohio river below sweep their homes into the twisted mass of wreckage.

House after house was torn from its foundations, crushed into a shapeless mass and torn to bits in the eddies of the swift current.

Little remains of Shawneetown. From the hills the brick and stone buildings alone appeared to be withstanding the rush of the torrent. These stood in from ten to thirty feet of water.

A high wind that sent the water over against the north levee with such force that it broke in a wide gap, wrought the very damage that the city council sought to prevent by dynamiting the levee below the town. Both north and east levees are submerged. No loss of life has been reported.

ARLINGTON TO GIBRALTAR.

Wireless From Arlington Across the Ocean.

Washington, April 3.—The high powered radio station at Arlington, today held a long distance wireless conversation with Gibraltar and convinced navy officials that it was able to transmit messages at any hour of the day or night to vessels at sea for a distance of 3,000 miles.

SWAN BRO'S STORE.

Among the construction work being undertakento add to the good appearance of the stores along King street is the addition to Swan Bros. big store, where the building next the main store is being remodeled with a new front and interior. Swan Bros. will install a new floor to match the hard maple floor recently placed in his big store, and also intends to install one of the latest methods of handling cash. This will be the new model overhead Lamson cash system ,which will make it unecessary to have a cashier on the main floor of the store. The cashier's desk will be placed on the new balcony in the rear of the store, which will also contain the private offices of Charles B. Swan and Wm. E. Swan. Arched entrances will be provided to give access to the new addition to the Swan store.

POSTOFFICE BUILDING.

The Judge's room in the United States District Court building is now furnished with a new carpet, a new ice cooler has been installed and this morning the new lounge for the Judge's use was delivered. This completed the new furnishings for the Judge's room.

The installaton of new window frames for the windows of the old section of the postoffice have all been installed, and painting of the frames will be completed in a day or so. The windows were put in to match the window frames in the new addition to the building giving the outside a uniform appearance.

TO TAKE INVENTORY.

Col. Chas. A. Dempsey, U. S. A., who has been assigned by the War Department to look after the equipment of Virginia militia, is to arrive in the city Friday morning, and at 10 o'clock will begin an inventory of the equipment of Company G, Alexandria Light Infantry.

Friday evening the members of Company G, Alexandria Light Infantry, will attend in dress uniform, the bazaar given at the Odd Fellow's Hall by the Alexandria Musical Association Band.

RUNAWAY HORSE.

The fine team of jet black horses which had been purchased for the city by Dr. J. J. Garvey, deputy health officer, and were expected in the city yesterday, failed to arrive. The animals started from Bluemont in charge of a driver, and it has been reported that one of the horses got away from the driver when about 30 miles from Alexandria and made rapid strides for home. The driver failed to catch up with the runaway and had to retrace his steps all the way home to regain the animal. The horse made its way to Round Hill.

The latest information received by Dr. Garvey from the farm where the animals were raised, is to the effect that the driver was afraid of the horses, which are spirited animals, refusing to continue on to Alexandria with the team, and turned back home. Another start for this city was made today under the direction of a different driver and the horses are expected to reach here tonight.

B. ABRAMSON'S NEW STORE.

The new store and apartments being remodeled by Benjamin Abramson, corner of King and St. Asaph streets, are rapidly nearing completion, and, if the builders complete the structure as planned, Mr. Abramson expects to move into his new establishment the early part of May. Little is left of the old structure, the entire enterior of the building having been practically torn out, and new floors, new walls and roof constructed. The remodeled building represents an outlay of nearly $12,000. The equipment of the store and the apartments above are modern in every respect. There are two apartments of seven rooms each over the store, containing large pantrys, commodious bath rooms and a large hall. The entrance to the apartments is on St. Asaph street. It is the intention of Mr. Abramsonsto occupy the lower apartment and to rent out the third apartment furnishing hot water heat.

MRS. PANKHURST DECLARED GUILTY

DEFIANCE OF LAWS.

Indignant Suffragette Denounces Man-Made Laws—Will Start Hunger Strike and Die in Prison.

London, April 3.—Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst, militant suffragette leader, this afternoon was found guilty of inciting to malicious destruction of property, by a jury in Old Bailey, London's famous Central Criminal Court.

Mrs. Pankhurst wes sentenced to three years penal servitude. When Justice Lush pronounced her sentence he was greeted with hisses and boohs by the women in the court room, despite the efforts of the policemen to keep them quiet.

"Shame," cried some of the militants.

The jurors in delivering their verdict of guilty, unanimously begged the magistrate to show mercy to the convicted woman.

When Mrs. Pankhurst realized that she had been sent to prison for three years at hard labor, her face blanched, those nearest to her thought, but she made no comment.

The maximum penalty for the crime of which she was convicted is fourteen years' nmprisonment.

The jury deliberated only a few minutes, and returned their verdict at 2:12 p. m.

The fate of Mrs. Pankhurst went to the jury of men after Justice Lush had told the twelve that her impassioned plea—all the defense she submitted—was "irrelevant." When Chief Inspector O'Brien of Scotland Yard told his story of the arrest of Mrs. Pankhurst in her Knightbridge Flat, King's counsel Bodkin announced that the Crown had finished.

Facing the jurors without emotion but with earnestness in every word Mrs. Pankhurst told them she would call no witnesses and then proceeded to tell the men why it was that she pleaded not guilty and asked acquittal, even while admitting full responsibility for the Walton Heath bomb explosion.

"No woman in England is ever tried by a jury of her peers, as is her right," she said. "Trials such as this today are examples of what they are suffering to obtain their rights.

"I pleaded not guilty because I am not wicked and not malicious, though I accept full responsibility for the Lloyd-George explosion."

Mrs. Pankhurst then proceeded to catalogue all the "man-made" laws of England that she said were unjust to women. They included almost every law of importance in England.

"The divorce law alone,' she said, "is sufficient to justify a revolution by the women."

Mrs. Pankhurst concluded her address to the jury by defying the country's laws, saying that she would not submit them, no matter what happened.

"Whatever the sentence may be imposed upon me, I'll not submit,' to ite," she shouted. "If I am convicted immediately after I leave this court room, I shall start a hunger strike, and come out of prison dead or alive at the earliest possible moment.

"In behalf of the welfare of this country, I ask the jury to find me not guilty."

The police were powerless to check the demonstration of the militants who were at Old Bailey, and as the women left the court they loudly sang "March On," the Marsailasses—like the battle song of Women's Social and Political Union.

GUAGER FOR BREWERY.

The Treasury Department is expected to announce in a few days the appointment of a guager to be stationed at the Robert Portner Brewery. It has not yet been decided whether a guager is to be stationed at the brewery permanently or only the occasions when the storage vats are filled which depends on amount of bottling done daily.

The extensive improvements that have been made at the brewery recently, which includes the installation of eight large storage vats in the new bottling department with a total capacity of over 8,000 gallons of beer, has made it necessary to have a guager stationed there. Each vat is equipped with a government lock which prevents the filling of the vats with beer except under the direction of the guager, who must be present when beer is placed in storage or drawn from the vats for bottling.

Formerly all beer bottling was taken direct from the stamped barrels. In the new bottling works the bottling machines connect direct with the large steel vats and the duty of the government guager will be to measure the beer that is bottled and protect the government on the revenue.

Capt. F. Beattie, deputy collector of internal revenue, is making tests of the new vats and establishing the guages and will probably recommend some one as guager in a few days.

DISAPPEARANCE OF IMMIGRANT GIRLS

Believe That Young Women Have Fallen Into Hands of White Slavers—Investigation Started.

Chicago, April 3.—The mysterious disappearance of twenty young immigrant girls, from a Baltimore and Ohio train en-route to Chicago from New York caused C. F. Dewoody, of the Federal Department of Justice to begin an investigation today.

Dewoody believes that the twenty girls, not one of whom can speak English may have fallen into the hands of white slave . They were in a party of 150 immigrants who left New York on Tuesday of last week and were due in Chicago last Thursday.

When a Danish girl whose arrival had been expected by Managers of the Norweigan-Danish Christian Women's Home, in Chicago, failed to appear, an investigation started. It was learned that on last Wednesday when the train stopped at New Castle, Penn. the twenty girls hurried to a lunch room a few blocks from the station. They did not re-appear and the train pulled out. The missing girls w . . of Polish, French, Danish and Norweigan descent.

Dewoody wired federal authorities at Pittsburgh today asking them to investigate the disappearance of the girls.

The Musical Art Club meets this evening with Miss Emily Johnson at her home in Prince street.

Dr. J. B. Coakley and wife, of Buffalo, N. Y., who have spent the winter in Florida, have returned to their home. Dr. and Mrs. Coakley stopped in this city on their way north, where they visited Mr. F. A. Coakley, brother of the doctor.

Mr. T. B. Gayle, who has been visiting his son, Mr. T. B. Gayle, Jr., and family in King George, returned yesterday to his home in Potomac.

Mrs. E. F. Clarke, who has been spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. L. L. Jacobs, in Alexandria, has returned to her home in Fredericksburg.

Mrs. W. W. S. Butler, who has been visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, has returned to her home in Roanoke. Mrs. Butler has been studying art under Miss Critcher and has just completed a portrait of Chief Justice Marshall which is pronounced by all who have seen it most creditable work .

The arrangements for the bazaar given by the ladies of St. Paul's congregation are nearing completion and the attention and thought given to each detail promises an entertainment well worth attending. The "festivities of the holidays" is the program arranged for the occasion which will give opportunity for attractive costumes and elaborate decoration. Most appropriate for the "Thanksgiving Festival" will be the appetizing and substantial supper served by the ladies on this committee. "Valentines Day" is to be represented by the candy booth as "sweets to the sweets" is always in vogue. "The Labor Day" representatives will have for sale every useful article imaginable, including attractive bags of pretty design and dainty material for sewing and other conveniences. 'Fourth of July" maids will offer at tempting prices souvenirs to suit each and every taste. The Christmas Table will be laden "A la Santa Claus" to overflowing with beautiful surprises and the festivity, which is the joy of every child's heart, will not be missing. 'The Goose that laid the golden egg"—and for a small sum the youngster can be made most happy. The tenth, eleventh, and twelfth are the dates to remember, or a treat and an opportunity to purchase hand made articles not found on the merchants counter, will be missed. The bazaar will take place at St. Paul's Parish Hall, corner of Pitt and Duke streets.

Mr. George W. Crump and Miss Sadie Bastin, both of this city, will be married this evening at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church by Rev. W. F. Watson.

DOGS MUST WEAR MUZZLES

Bacteriologist Approves Alexandria's Methods to Minimize Danger

"Alexandria is seeing a most worthy example in requiring all dogs in that city to be muzzled," says Dr. Meade Ferguson, bacteriologist of the State Department of Health.

"I understand," he said yesterday, "that if a dog is caught on the street unmuzzled, he is forthwith hustled off to the pound and dispatched to the happy hunting grounds without any formalities or delay customary in such cases.

"This is a first rate move in the right direction and it is my honest belief that if other sections of the state would follow suit, we would have but little trouble in stamping out rabies."

Dr. Ferguson is in possession of figures showing that England has been exceptionally successful in checking the spread of rabies by enforcing its dog-muzzling laws.

The work of muzzling dogs which are allowed to roam the streets has commenced, and the number thus "bridled" is on the increase. It will take several days for the canines to become familiar with these attachments, and at present most dogs attempt to get rid of their head gear as soon as it is attached.

The following dispatch from this city, appeared in yesterday's N. Y. Evening Telegram. Double-column head lines were placed over it:

Alexandria, Va., Wednesday—Good dogs, bad dogs, plain dogs, and just dogs are included in the half hundred housed today in the local jail. Any one who wants them will be welcomed with open arms, but no one seems to be anxious to adopt any of the canines. The dogs are all registered as John Doe prisoners, but are given different numerals. Just what is to be done with them is a problem that the City Council will decide today when a special session of that body is called.

There has never been such a floating population of dogs in this city as there is today. Where the dogs come from no one knows, but this city seems to be the magnet for them, and they are coming from all parts of the South.

The mayor ordered that dogs who could not establish an alibi and produce an owner should be locked up, and they were brought to the jail in a hearse. As a result all the vagrants and other regular features of the local jail had to be warned to leave the city after being released so that the dogs taken in could have a place to sleep. Now the tax payers are grumbling because the dogs are being fed at their expense, and as there is no pound here there is no way in which to get rid of the animals.

A new office was officially created by the council as Jim Stanley unanimously chosen as "canine coaxer" as they now call him. Persons all over town donated every sort of contrivance imaginable to catch dogs from fish and butterfly nets to pitchforks.

Stanley was up bright and early

VISITS OF GRAND SACHEM

Interesting Address By George W. Whitely—Indian Guards Warmly Complimented

An official visit to Osceola and Seminole Tribes of the Improved Order of Red Men was made by Great Sachem George W. Whitely, of Newport News, Virginia, last night at the Council Fire of the Osceola Tribe in their wigwam at Prince and Royal streets.

There was a large attendance and the address was listened to with close attention.

The Grand Sachem commended the excellent work accomplished by the Red Men of this city, as well as the splendid showing made by the organization throughout the state. He reported that the order would show a gain of 100 members by time of the meeting of the Great Council of Virginia at Hampton in May.

Later, Mr. Whitely paid a visit to Lone Star Camp, No. 1, American Indian Guards, a junior organization recently founded by Past Grand Sachem Walter S. Nicklin, of Osceola Tribe, which is an applicant for auxiliary membership in the improved Order of Red Men. The boys were warmly complimented by their visitor, who promised them his earnest efforts to secure their recognition by the national body.

Men's Tailormade Clothing Ready-to-Be-Worn

Our Men's Clothing is ready to be put on; yet it is tailormade. This fact accounts for the excellence it possesses—the marks that distingush it from the ordinary ready-to-wear clothing. In its designing and making we believe we have overcome every objection heard against ready-to-wear clothing.

This clothing can be bought with absolute certainty of fashionable correctness, individuality of style, tailoring of the highest order, and is consequenlty unequalled in service, shape-retaining qualities, and the points of merit that establish the value of clothing.

Men anxious for a style change can find plenty to interest them; Norfolks in variety, soft-roll effects, new English cuts, conservative styles—in fact any worthy style. Many shades and weaves.

Hart, Schaffner and Marx suits, in men's and young men's models, made especially for us, $18.00 to $40. Other suits from $12.50 upward.

Dr. J. W. Trout, of St. Luke's Church, Philadelphia, offered a resolution setting forth that certain persons, calling themselves evangelists, are seeking to be employed in the pulpits of the Methodist Protestant Chruch without proper credentials, and cautioning the ministers to beware of them. He offered a motion to have the president of the conference pass on the fitness of such so-called evangelists before they are employed. This met with much disfavor, and was laid on the table.

CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS.

Stonewall Jackson Monument Corporation Will Solicit Money.

Richmond, Va., April 3.—An active campaign in the Valley of Virginia is to be made by the Stonewall Jackson Monument Corporation in the interest of the movement to erect an equestrian statue to the great soldier who was mortally wounded at Chancellorsville nearly fifty years ago. The monument will be placed in Richmond among the other testimonials to distinguished soldiers of Civil war.

A number of subscriptions and cash contributions have been received om people in Richmond and have promised to aid later.

CHARGES AGAINST OFFICER.

Capt. of Collier Neptune, Accused of Brutality.

Norfolk, Va., April 3.—Charges of brutality and inhuman treatment today were forwarded to Secretary of the Navy Daniels against Capt. C. O. Tilton, of the United States collier Neptune, by members of the crew. The men charge that Tuesday was their first day of liberty since signing on December 2, and that during that period they were forced to work many hours overtime, forced to work while sick, and were not allowed sufficient rest.

Irving Coppridge, an eighteen-year-old mess boy, of this city, charges that Capt. Tilton beat him, dragged him about by the scruff of the neck, and kicked him.

Albert Voight, a young seaman, made similar charges. E. G. Dara, fireman, declared that because he did not do the work of four men he was put in irons for six hours, his hands being tied so tightly that he could not use them for two days.

Secretary Daniels is expected to act upon the charges as soon as he returns from target practice.

TIDEWATER BANK CLOSES.

President Palmer Says Trouble is Only Temporary.

Warsaw, Va., April 3.—John A. Palmer, Jr., president of the Tidewater Bank of Virginia, of Reedville, has issued a statement saying that yesterday morning the bank had been compelled temporarily to close its doors. He says that in his judgment there are sufficient assets to pay every depositor and every stockholder dollar for dollar.

President Palmer further says that the bank's embarrassment was caused by its inability to realize on loans made, which, while good, cannot be made in a day. He expressed the hope that the bank in a short while would be able to resume business.

BRIDGE POISON CASE.

Staunton, Va., Apri 13.—Motive is the most perplexing of all of the many baffling question that await solution in the case of Clint Bridge, who died under such mysterious circumstances in Basic City on Sunday afternoon.

So far as careful investigation can determine he had no enemy who might have plotted to bring about his end through revenge, he had no worldly goods that some other person might have hoped to inherit, and he lived in happiness with his wife and family—in fact, all of the usual suspicions seem upset by local explanation. Just why any one should have murdered this man is beyond surmise at the present time.

Until examination can be made by the state chemist of the dead man's viscera and of the tarts that are counterparts of the others that are thought to have contained the fatal strychnine, little progress can be made by the town and county officials who have the strange case under investigation. If poison is found in the seven tarts that have been sent to Richmond the theory of accident will seem most plausible, though the wife has stated before that there was no strychnine in the Bridge home on Sunday. If these seven tarts are discovered without drug, then will seem that Clint Bridge died a victim of a sinister plot.

STEAMER DISABLED.

Admiral Sends the Lebanon to Relief of the Hawley.

Norfolk, Va., April 3.—Rear Admiral Badger, commanding the Atlantic battleship fleet now engaged in target practice on the Southern drill grounds, last night dispatched the collier Lebanon to the assistance of the American steamer George Hawley, reported in distress 10 miles east by north of Cape Henry.

The Hawley is disabled, and is unable to proceed. The revenue cutter Onondaga, which was at this port, notified by wireless of the Hawley's distress, and left last night to go to the assistance of the disabled vessel.

The Hawley is a new vessel engaged in the coal-carrying trade, and carries a crew of about 28 men.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Car Inspector Decapitated And Mangled in Richmond.

Richmond, April 3.—John Edwin Baugh, forty-three years old, of south Richmond, a car inspector for the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad at the Byrd street station, was instantly killed and his body decapitated at 6:25 o'clock yesterday morning when he was struck by a yard engine a few feet from the bridge just beyond the end of the Byrd street train shed.

Baugh was on his way from the bridge to the station, where he was expected to couple an engine to train No. 82. He had been walking beside a track, but at a crossover he stepped over the rails, just as a shifting engine, which had crossed the bridge, dashed toward the station. No sooner had Baugh reached the middle of the track than the engine struck him. He was flung to the rails and the wheels passed over his head, severing it from his body. His arms also were horribly mangled, and both hands were severed at the wrists.

Harm Will Last for Decade.

Newport News, Va., April 3.—Rev. V. G. Starr, D. D., pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church, in his sermon on Sunday night, paid his respects to those sympathizers of the Allens who have been writing long articles for the newspapers advocating the commutation of the sentence of the two Allens, who were electrocuted Friday, and to those who have attacked Governor Mann for failing to interefere with the verdict of the courts in the case of the two men.

Dr. Starr depreciated the maudlin sympathy which has been shown for the dead men, and declared that this has had the effect of doing great harm in the state. He also deplored the fact that prominent preachers and other leaders of thought in the State had arrayed themselves against the law in this case, and declared that the effect will be felt for the next ten years.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

NECESSARY PRECAUTIONS.

The present serious situation in the flooded districts of Ohio and other states should bring close home to every American the real necessity of following the suggestions laid down by those who are urging the conservation of our natural resources, particularly our forests.

There are certainly strong grounds for the argument that the federal government should purchase large tracts of mountain timber land at the headwaters of navigable streams and maintain the same as national forests, exercising over them such supervision as to prevent the spread of fires and the improper cutting of timber.

One disastrous experinece after another has shown us that, where the hills have been denuded of trees at the head-waters of streams, the earth, exposed to the sun, becomes packed and will not absorb the rain, which is heavy at certain seasons of the year. It is necessarily, carried off by the streams, and these increasing in volume as they flow to the seas, become a menace to life and property, and frequently bring about such a catastrophe as the middle western states are now suffering from.

The argument that forest conservation should be left to the states may not be without merit, but it is not reasonable to expect concerted action from them, or a real ability to accomplish the desired end. Moreover, the chief exponents of this theory have been those whose own personal plans would be frustrated by the adoption of a scheme of general federal conservation.

However, the present national calamity should prove a most potent argument in inducing our national legislature to let no opportunity slip to prevent its repetition.

POOR HOUSEKEEPING.

We believe that Alexandria is making long strides in the way of improvements, and is approaching that condition of civic perfection which every citizen who has the interest of our city at heart must earnestly desire. However, that goal has not been reached, and we have not done all that we could in presenting our best appearance to our visitors.

It seem stoo bad that at each approach to Alexandria by trolley a stranger should be treated to the sight of ash heaps with all of their attendant ugliness. The dump is, of course, a necessary adjunct of a city, but certainly at the head of King street the sight is uninwiting to our homefolks and must give the incoming visitor a poor idea of our sense of the fitness of things.

Then, too, if the King street entrance is bad, the road out of town to Mt. Vernon is infinitely worse. When the sight seers' train pulls out of the Royal street station the conductor announces through his megaphone that the cars are passing through the ancient and historic city of Alexandria, and the passengers gaze out on two or three of the least beautiful blocks we possess. Here the dump seems to thrive amazingly and the situation is generally unsavory.

It does not seem unnatural to want to have our visitors see us at our best, and surely these eye-sores must cause them to question our civic house keeping. Let's have the dumps in the back yard, not out on the front lawn.

THE BOY SCOUTS.

Every effort should be made to encourage the Boy Scouts movement and to render it all the necessary aid to insure its existence as a permanent organization.

Troops now exist, or are being organized in every large town in the country, and the smaller communities are gradually awakening to the merits of the movement and are giving it the proper backing.

It is easy to understand why it makes an appeal to American boys, for it endorses a scheme of right living which must make them better men. It teaches a doctrine of strong, vigorous boyhood, a healthy out-door boyhood, ready for the emergencies which inevitably arise in our every-day lives.

The element of religious training is not lacking, and, in fact, the organization aims to develop well rounded men and useful citizens. Certainly, those of us who recall the little fellows on Pennsylvania Avenue on the 3rd and 4th of March have reason to admire the Boy Scouts and wish them the greatest success.

We note that Victor Murdock is visiting Theodore Roosevelt to discuss the future of the Progressive Party. Surely the Big Bull Moose isn't thinking of upsetting a precedent and listening to advice.

Our pride makes us hope that Schafer and Altrock will not reproduce that game with the Cardinals in vaudeville next winter.

A youth was arrested in Richmond for throwing a peanut at a young girl. Judge Crutchfield acquitted him, but said he would have "burned him up," if he had been sure of his intentions. It must be said for Justice John that he doesn't miss many such opportunities.

Suffolk voted to stay dry. Why not change its name to Suffer?

A Baltimore judge gave as his opinion that it would not have been contempt of court if a woman prisoner had kissed him, as she threatened to do. The trial justice is complimented and the opinion of the lower court is unanimously affirmed.

The Charleston News and Courier reports that a Kentuckian's nose was shot off by a small boy who mistook it for a red bird. This promiscuous carrying of fire-arms should be stopped. There's no telling who might get hurt.

Monday and started on the round-up. He did not travel five blocks until he had the hearse jammed full of dogs. The glass sides of the vehicle had the appearance of a large cake of calves' foote jelly, with the many colored dogs pressed against them.

The next three dogs Stanley caught he tied onto the seat on top of the hearse. Then he got some chicken crates and soon had them filled resting securely on the roof of the vehicle. A poultry wagon was "hitched" onto a hearse, and this, too, soon was filled to overflowing.

Jacksonville, Ill., April 3.—The Illinois river levee at Naples near here broke in three places at 5:30 a. m. today flooding most of the town four feet deep. The levee at Meredosia, broken at sevan A. M., flooding ten thousand acres o ffarm land and part of the town from two to ten feet deep.

Reports from Beardstown were that the town was surrounded by water which was one foot deep in the main street. One hundred families have been driven from their homes.

Transmission of Funds to Flood Sufferers.

The Citizens National Bank anticipating that the people of Alexandria will respond liberally to the President's call for aid for the flood sufferers in Ohio and Indiana, begs to announce that it will gladly receive such contributions and will remit the same immediately to the American Red Cross at any point required.

A FRIEND.

You may search the English language from beginning to the end
But you'll find no word so cordial as the simple word of "friend,"
It is pregnant with a meaning definitions can't portray,
It is hallowed by the thoughts unwriten, which it can convey.

He has a friend, indeed, who knows a man he can command
When grief and sore affliction their baleful toll demand,
It is a friend to whom one bares his stricken, troubled heart,
And says "Behold the day is done, breathen that friend will e'er 'impart.

Ah, can gold buy so rare a thing as friendship, staunch and true?
Ah, can you wish a greater boon to soothe and comfort you?
Keep pure the friendship you possess, increase them with the years,
They are the fairest gifts God sends men in this vale of tears.

If Christ Church is old, is Captain George Young?

If we were to sow Wheat and Barley in that Field over by the Brooke who would Garner the crop?

The trouble about some people is that, the greater the success their neighbors attain, the poorer, by comparison, their own positions appear and therein, of course, lies the rub.

Breathes there a man with wit so dead,
Who on his pillow lays his head
And knows ful well no word he
Iv'e heard no joke or quip or pun.'

THE STARS.

(Communicated.)

It is a strange, yet thrilling, sight to gaze on the heavenly beauties on a fair night a few nights ago the moon was shining her prettiest to a sleeping world and to us it looked as if a bright star was in handshaking distance of it. But that could not be. But to think of—

The Stars.

How radiant the evening skies
Broad wing of blue in Heaven unfurled—
God watching with a thousand eyes
The welfare of a sleeping world

He lights the wild flower in the wood,
And rocks the sparrow in it's nest
He guides the angels on their road,
That come to guard us while we rest.

When the bee will blow his tiny horn
To wake the sisterhood of flowers
And God shall kindle up the morn
Praise shall expand these hearts of ours.

—GEORGE H. HAYDEN.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT.

Love, the toothache, smoke or cough, and a tight shoes are things which cannot possibly be kept secret very long. There are a great many of things for which there are remedies, but as to tight shoes, don't get them. Trade with people who can and will fit you. Go to those who have the experience of a life time behind them and who will see to it that the shoe fits before you leave the store. In other words, go to the shoe parlor of John A. Marshall & Bro., and you know you will get quality combined with a perfect fit. This firm is an Alexandria landmark, but is different from some of these, for, like the eagle, the monarch of the air, it renews its youth, and today, after forty years of business sagacity, is as gay as ever and prepare dto meet and satisfy the tastes of the most fastidious.

Cardinal at The White House.

Washington, April 3.—James, Cardinal Farley, of the New York diocese, the first of the great Roman Catholic prelates to pay their respects to President Wilson, called at the White House today. The cardinal spent but a few minutes with the President and assured him that he was heartily in sympathy withthe ideals of government the President expounded.

Cardinal Gibbons, it is said, will pay his respects to the President later in the week.

Judge Peter J. Hamilton, of Alabama, appointed judge in Porto Rico and H. H. Bryn, minister from Norway, also paid their respects to the President today.

New Haven, Conn.—Prof. William H. Fat's first day's work at Yale consisted in attending chapel services and answering "present" at a faculty meeting.

NO CASE AGAINST COLEMAN.

Lawyer Acquitted at Hearing Before Justices.

Danville, Va., April 3.—Roy C. Coleman, member of a prominent Danville family and a local lawyer, was yesterday morning acquitted on a charge of obstructing the administration of justice after a two hours' trial before three justices of the peace. The Commonwealth failed to sustain any theory of guilt, and after all of the evidence had been heard admitted that no case had been made.

Coleman was indicted by the grand jury during the last session of the Corporation Court following the alleged revelations made by a negro concerning the paying of T. J. Pickert, the principal in the Hutson robbery case, a certain sum of money to leave town.

It developed in court that Coleman was not the man who was party to the transaction, but another person.

Following the presentment of the indictment, the judge ordered the case disposed of in the lower court, and C. A. Raine, Jr., a justice of the peace, was selected to try the case. He associated with him two other justices, and the trio this morning were unanimous in their decision that Coleman was clearly vindicated.

Head-on Collision.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 3.—When the wrecking crew of the Lehigh Valley Railroad reached Lackawana today following a head-on collision between two freight trains, in which four men were hurt, they found the wrecked cars stripped of nearly all their cargo. Two hundred men, women and children swarmed down upon the wreck, and braving the flames which followed the collision carried off clothing, furniture and merchandise of fevery description. The entire loss as a result of the wreck is estimated at $200,000.

Honors to Morgan.

Paris, April 3.—Plans were completed today by the French government to render military honors to J. P. Morgan when his body is transferred at Havre from the Rome train to the steamship La France, which on Saturday will sail for New York with Morgan's body.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The United States embasy in London yesterday received instructions from Secretary of State Bryan to begin an investigation into the case of elie Emerson, the Jackson, Mich., suffragette, who is reported to be ill in HoHoway jail from forcible feeding. Miss Emerson was arrested several weeks ago for destruction of property and assaulting a policeman, and went on a hunger strike. Her friends claim that her condition is precarious from forcible feeding.

The great Trabosch fort which for months has held the allies off Scutari, is now practically in the hands of the Montenegrins, thanks to the sacrifice of 200 bomb throwers, every one of which lost his life in the last desperate effort to clear the way to the town, for the possession of which Montenegro is ready to give up everything. These bomb throwers were all picked men, chosen from several batallions. Climbing up the mountain from a murderous fire from the Turkish guns, they cut the wire entanglements, and, getting up to close quarters, threw bombs among the Turks, thus opening the way for the storming party. Not one of the bomb throwers returned, but they had accomplished their object, and the Montenegrin infantry following close upon them, charged the trenches.

A Washington dispatch to the New York American says: A United States Senator, who comes from the west, was the subject of an investigation by District Attorney Wilson today on a serious charge, made by a woman from the Senator's home state. A number of witnesses have been summoned and the facts will be placed before the grand jury, which meets tomorrow. The senator asserts his innocence and says he is the victim o fa plot. A former United States Senator is advising the complainant. The woman is the wife of a man who is an applicant for a federal position.

A woman, who on Monday night jumped from the Douglas street Omaha, Neb., bridge into the Missouri river and was drowned, was dentified today as Mrs. Greta Chase Hull, wife of Col. John A. Hull, judge advocate United States army. Hull is a son of former congressman J. A. T. Hull, of Des Moines, Ia. Col. Hull was recently ordered to the Philippines, and it is supposed that grief and separation from her husband, prompted Mrs. Hull's act.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF RESIDUE.

Trustee's sale of the residue of the "Belvoir" or "White House" 'tract of land located in Mt. Vernon Magisterial District, Fairfax County, Va., containing approximately 1100 acres with improvements.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the will of Philip Otterback, deceased, and under decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, Va., in the suit of Otterback vs. Bohrer, at its March term, 1913, the undersigned trustees will offer for sale at public auction, in front of the Royal Street entrance to the Market House in Alexandria, Virginia, at the above described property.

This tract, the old home of Lord Fairfax and separated from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon, by Dogue Creek, originally consisted of approximateely twenty-seven hundred (2,700) acres, of which 1,500 acres has been taken by the United States Government for a school of Equitation or Horsemanship. The balance between ten and twelve hundred acres consists of valuable farming lands and about eight hundred (800) acres of valuable timber. It has a large deep water frontage on the Potomac river as well as a large frontage on Dogue Creek, with valuable fishing shores. The property is improved by the old mansion house, familiarly known for many years as the "White House," a club house, barns, stables, out-buildings and tenant houses. It is situated on the county road between Mt. Vernon and Accotink and is about four miles by road from Mt. Vernon. This property is one of the most historic in the section and would make a very desirable country estate because of its location and the opportunities afforded for fishing and shooting.

Terms of Sale:—One-third cash and residue in 3 equal annual payments at one, two and three years from the date of the confirmation of the sale with interest from the said date of the confirmation of sale at the rate of six per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually, with right to anticipate the time of paying the deferred payments, secured by retention of title till paid.

LEE MAY OPPOSE ELLYSON.

Will be Urged to Seek Nomination for Lieutenant-Governor.

Col. Robert E. Lee, Jr., grandson of the Confederate chieftain, will be asked to make the race for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia against J. Taylor Ellyson, the present holder of that office, as a result of the disclosures in the eleventh-hour respite of the Allens by Mr. Ellyson while Governor Mann was out of the state.

Behind the Lee movement are a num- of Richmond and Norfolk men. They state that if Colonel Lee will consent to make the race the movement will be formally launched within a short time.

Doubt exists whether Colonel Lee can be drawn into politics again. Years ago he was a member of the Virginia General Assembly from Fairfax county, where he resides. Since his retirement from the Legislature Colonel Lee has not taken an active part in Virginia politics.

Virginia is again torn asunder over the Allen case, nad the suggestion of the Lee candidacy for Lieuteant-Governor is an outgrowth of the controversy over the last movement to save the life of Claude Allen, the son of Floyd Allen, head of the Allen case.

Efforts have been made to place the responsibility for the effort to save Claude after Governor Mann left the State. Senator Claude A. Swanson has been drawn into the case. It is charged that the junior senator asked Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson to take action in the matter. Senator Swanson denies this, saying he was asked to call up Richmond over the long-distance telephone and when he did so he was consulted by the Lieutenant-Governor as to the Allen case.

The last few hours respite given the Allens, it is charged, was preliminary to an effort to get a commutation to life imprisonment of the death sentence of Claude Allen.

To The Democratic Voters of Alexandria:

Your attention is called to the fact that your poll taxes must be paid on or before May 3rd, 1913, in order that you may vote in the general election on November 4th, and the primaries prior to that date.

WOULD IMPEACH GOVERNOR.

Charged With Permitting Judicial Murder in Executing Allens.

Richmond, Va., April 3.—Petitions asking members of the legislature to convene in extra session for impeachment of Governor Mann for "permitting the judicial murder" of the Allens, executed here last Friday, were circulated in Hanover county today. Those behind the plan expect to attempt gathering of signatures in other counties if the movement succeeds in Hanover.

Demonstration Has No Effect.

Viena, April 3.—Austria-Hungary has a corpse of 50,000 men ready to proceed toward Scutari immediately if the international naval demonstration off the Montenegrin coast has no effect. According to a report this afternoon which has not been confirmed, Austria Hungary is prepared to declare war against Servia and Montenegro, should the troops of those nations now before Scutari resists the Austrians.

Five Men Drowned.

Toulon, April 3.—Five members of the crew of the submarine Turquoise were swept overboard and drowned today.

MRS. McGILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts In Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good.

One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more.

Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need. We urge you to try it.
